In honoring the memory and high ideals of Ilio DiPaolo, the wrestling community is proud to announce this award providing recognition and financial aid to a deserving college-bound athlete, who has become an accomplished wrestler through dedication, skill and sportsmanship, while maintaining scholastics and citizenship. The recipient of this prestigious award is encouraged, but not required, to wrestle in college, and will be of such character so as to represent the best attributes of the wrestling family.

Criteria:

Scholarship will be awarded to a college-bound high school senior from Section VI, based on the following criteria:

- Active member of an interscholastic varsity wrestling team for at least one year.
- High school grade-point average adequate for enrollment in an accredited post-secondary or college-degree oriented program.
- Certifiable involvement in extra-curricular activities illustrating a commitment to community, citizenship, and/or non-profit organizations.
- Nominations shall be made by wrestling coach, school athletic director, teachers, administrators, parent, employer or interested student.
- All nomination forms must be completed and submitted by March 17, 2017, Attn.: John DiBlasi. At which time "finalists" may be required to complete more extensive informational and recommendation forms.

Selection Committee:

A distinguished panel has been formed to gather and evaluate each wrestler's information, in order to establish recommended finalists. Final selection will be determined by this group, as listed.

Winners Announcement:

Presentation of this award will be made during the media/celebrity reception to be held on: May 22, 2017 at Ilio DiPaolo's Restaurant.

Awards Presentation:

- Ilio DiPaolo Award
- Gary Castanza Award
- Cauliflower Alley Award
- Bill Hein Wrestler Award
- Dick Beyer "Destroyer" Wrestler Award
